

Two New Jersey Actors Lead the Pack with Top Awards at Long Island International Film Expo

Scoring the "Best Actress" award at LIIFE is Heather Brittain O'Scanlon and taking home "Best Actor" is Bret Lada.

by Alexa Criscitiello Aug. 9, 2021

Heading into the Long Island International Film Expo (LIIFE) this week (August 10 - 15), there are winners already announced in major categories like best art direction and best cinematography, but the race is still wide open in others, like best director and best feature film. Regardless of who wins, it has been a wild ride in the film festival circuit during the historic pandemic. Scoring the "Best Actress" award at LIIFE is Heather Brittain O'Scanlon and taking home "Best Actor" is Bret Lada.

"Victim No. 6", written and directed by Nancy Menagh ("As It Seems"), is co-produced by Menagh and O'Scanlon under their production companies, Black Dog Pictures and SOS Productions, respectively. The film stars O'Scanlon ("Blue Bloods", "House Broken") along with Russ Russo ("Catch Hell", "Act of War"). "Victim No. 6" is set in 1975 New York City, where a fun-loving woman out at her local bar invites a handsome stranger back to her place, despite knowing there is a serial killer on the loose.
